VOICE OF THE EDITOR

Employee Benefits on a Shoestring Budget

Accountants who are advising businesses on how they can provide perks to employees and save money at the same time should read Alexandra DeFelice's article on Employee Benefits When Times Are Tough. Thinking outside the box when it comes to benefits can bolster employee loyalty and let employees know you care. . . . Meanwhile, if you're struggling to see the top of your desk or finding that the corners of your office and the table tops are overflowing, Jeff Davidson shares some excellent tips on getting a handle on clutter.

TIP OF THE DAY

Draw up a to-do list at the end of the day for the next day, or very early in the morning for the day that will unfold. This gives you the best opportunity, free from interruptions, to jot down items that are current and vital.

PRACTICE HEADLINES

→ Nine Tips for Decluttering Your Life

You know when you're hanging on to too much stuff and when you should pare down, but how can you begin to declutter with minimum pain and gnashing your teeth? Guest writer Jeff Davidson offers some suggestions.

→ Employee Benefits When Times Are Tough

Health care continues to grow increasingly expensive. So does the rent. So do the coffee and creamer you offer your staff. While some of these may only seem like pennies, pennies add up after a while.

→ Looking to Sell Your Firm? Merge Instead.

You're at the point where you don't want to stop working, but you know you can no longer run your firm for years to come. Should you sell the firm?
