

VOICE OF THE EDITOR

You Need a Break

Well, I do at least.

This will be my last note for a while as I'm off for a short vacation. It will be long enough that I should be refreshed when I return but short enough that you won't even notice that I'm gone. Some of you might prefer that I take a longer break, but you'll be enjoying longer breaks from me before you know it.

That's intentionally mysterious.

If you're not planning some time off while I'm away (or anytime soon), feel free to have your run of the place; post in the forum, attend a webinar, comment on a post, brush up on Excel, whatever strikes your fancy.

And if you really miss me, email me your address and I'll send you a postcard.
